

Catholic Ministry Formation Register

Church Entity Registration and Contact Person Nomination Form

The Catholic Ministry Formation Register (CMFR) is intended to keep a record of those in formation for ministry as clerics or religious. This will aid in the screening of applicants and serve as a historical record of formation.

By signing this form you are registering your Church entity to use the CMFR. This includes the requirement to register applicants for formation. This will be carried out by the nominated CMFR Contact Person. Basic details about such applications may be disclosed to another Church entity. This will occur where a subsequent application has been made by the same person, or a nominated Contact Person has requested a name check.

The CMFR is administered by Australian Catholic Safeguarding Ltd (ACSL). The information on the CMFR will be managed in accordance with ACSL's privacy policy and all relevant laws. Please see our privacy statement on the next page for further details.
