

Australian Catholic Ministry Register

Annual list affirmation form

This form is to be used by Church Authorities or their delegates to affirm the status of ministers associated with their entity in accordance with ACSL's annual distribution of lists at the beginning of each year.

In preparing to make this declaration, Church Authorities or their delegates should carefully review the lists provided by ACSL. This review should be done in light of the requirements as outlined in the Individual Safeguarding Declaration and Church Authority Safeguarding Statement given when registering individuals for the ACMR. In doing so they should be assisted by their staff who work with the ACMR routinely and professional standards staff.

Church Authority or delegate's affirmation

I acknowledge that all ACMR ID holders must continue to meet the ACMR's requirements in order to retain their approved status. Having examined the list of ACMR ID holders associated with my Church entity, I affirm that all those listed as approved meet these requirements or that I have attached Change of Status forms as appropriate. I also affirm that the statuses listed for all other ID holders remain appropriate.
